A Minute in Ministry

In Worship through this Easter season, many scripture readings in the Lectionary come from the book of Acts. They recount experiences from the times when the earliest apostles received visions of how God called them to serve. What cultural realities did they face? Where should they go, even beyond accepted boundaries or apparent limitations? With whom should they share the good news of God's love in Christ? Often I am amazed at what courage, openness, creativity, energy, trust, humility, and willingness to sacrifice must have been necessary for them, in God's grace, to touch so many hearts, to inspire new followers of Christ, to establish the church as an instrument (in its better moments) of God's purposes in the world.

In this Easter season, we have begun a visioning process for our congregation. By the time you read this Presbyter, some events will already have occurred, and other opportunities are still to come. At the heart of living faith as Presbyterians, we trust God to continue speaking through our conversation with one another. We need everyone's voice, perspective, experience, hopes, and dreams. And we need to engage one another with the grace of openness, creativity, humility, and trust. What cultural realities do we face? Where is God calling us in service—maybe even beyond accepted boundaries and practices or apparent limitations?

As we've discussed in some classes, I like the image of living faith as an ongoing conversation across generations. Through laughter, tears, questions, crises, and new discoveries, people have "conversed" in our congregation for over 180 years. Each of us has joined at some point along the way. I'm excited by the expectation of others joining, as well. And however we "leave" this particular conversation, I trust that God's love in Christ will continue to be spoken through generations to come. That is good news! What do you have to share?

A pivotal point in Christian history came very early, among the first apostles. They discussed what really defined our faith and how we should live together when non-Jewish believers began to follow Jesus. At a council in Jerusalem, Barnabas and Paul told of "signs and wonders" God had done among them. At heart, the council faced together the question, the task, the privilege of envisioning how God's grace works among us, and what they should do in response. In the end, when they reached a decision, Acts recounts support given with the affirmation: "it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us ..."

Please make the effort to participate in our "conversation" throughout this month. Session will approve members of the Vision Team. They will receive everything that is expressed in this initial period, and they will reflect together through the months ahead. In the end, some time later this summer, we expect that our council, the Session, will affirm a vision for our congregation to guide our life and witness to Christ in this time and place. At that time, I pray we will be able to say—with courage, energy, and willingness to engage in sacrificial service—it seems good to the Holy Spirit and to us!

Grace and peace to you,

Seth

STEWARDSHIP

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

John 6:35 (NSRV)

*The Gifts of God
for the People of God*

Imagine, if you will, for just a moment, that Jesus stands before you and declares himself to be the bread of life. In spite of what you might think, his words would have seemed as outrageous to his listeners 2000 years ago as they do to us now. Of course, the edge has been taken off somewhat because of the comfortable familiarity that now surrounds them - "I am the bread of life." But what if we could hear them as if for the first time?

For so many Christians, these words are so common that trying to imagine hearing them for the first time is as futile as trying to be someone else. For the soldier to be the teacher, or the clerk to be the circus clown is almost ludicrous, a flight of fancy. Some things are so much a part of what we are, of our structured belief systems, that we can hardly pretend them to be something different.

We can hardly think of Jesus apart from the bread and wine of the Eucharist. But it is not the bread of the communion meal that Jesus is talking about. Jesus wants his followers to understand that the gifts of God, the Gift of Jesus, are as necessary to their well-being as nourishment itself.

Know the Giver. Receive the gifts. Share with others, with all the world. God knows what we need, and gives abundantly. We open our hearts and minds and souls to receive. Then, and only then, can we grow in our personal giving.

We are hungry; there is bread. We are thirsty; there is Living Water. We yearn for quiet, for light in the darkness, for guidance, and for the hope of generosity. Jesus says, "Here I am."

ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE NOTES

The Endowment Committee is charged with oversight of the Endowment Fund and related Designated Funds. The purpose of the Endowment Fund is to provide income in support of the annual operating budget of the church. The Designated Funds also provide income to specific outreach activities, based on the wishes of the original donors.

The selection of investments is made in light of the philosophy and spiritual values of our congregation. These endowed funds are expressions of charity and compassion for and from the members of First Presbyterian Church. The Endowment Fund is intended to support our mission into perpetuity.

Consider your own gift to the Endowment Fund as one expression of your legacy to the church. Large or small, any gift is welcome in support of our ministry. The committee is forever grateful for those members of our church who have made commitments over the last 30 years, and to those who will consider a gift in the future.

ALL-CHURCH PICNIC—June 5

The annual All-Church Picnic is coming! Congregational Life would like to invite you to meet and eat with us one more time before the busy summer season begins! We are going back to picnic basics with hamburgers and hot dogs, but would love for you to bring a side dish or dessert to share with everyone! If you have any questions, contact Kelsey Oliver at (269) 903-1077 or olivekel@mail.gvsu.edu.

HEALING SERVICE—May 15

The Health Ministry Committee invites you to give yourself the gift of a protected time and space for healing prayer on Sunday, May 15, in the East Transept immediately following Worship. The Reverend Mary Van Andel will lead us in this time of healing and restorative prayer. The use of “healing prayer” is very familiar. When we pray every Sunday in Worship for healing the nations, the earth, our communities, one another, and ourselves, we practice healing prayer.

Please join us, whether or not you have a specific need for healing. All are welcome! This is a time to be together in quiet reflection and prayer.

READING ALOUD STARTING A NEW BOOK!!

Now entering our 22nd year of reading books about how we might live, our Reading Aloud group is just now starting Paul Kalanithi's book, When Breath Becomes Air. A brilliant young neurosurgeon, Kalanithi is diagnosed with terminal lung cancer. Unable to continue his career, he writes about his personal formation, his training, and the last months of his life, as he and his wife struggle to hold things together, care for their new daughter, and find meaning as the end approaches. Join us at 9:15 a.m. each Sunday morning, upstairs in Room 300. For more information, call Kim Cummings (342-6943) or Garrett Boersma (375-3107).

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN'S 2016 BIRTHDAY OFFERING

Please make your check payable to "Presbyterian Women" and write "PW Birthday Offering" on the memo line. Envelopes are available in the Narthex and at the Lovell Street entrance. The deadline is June 10.

SAVORING THE LECTIONARY Sundays at 9:00 a.m.

You are invited to join other church members in the weekly lectionary study prior to Worship. During this time, we observe and discuss basic facts about the Scripture that will be used in the day's worship service. Together we attempt to interpret the meaning of the passages and to discover implications of the text for growing in Christ.

Kalamazoo Deacons Conference (KDC)

"Simple Treasures". This volunteer position in the KDC resale shop involves greeting shoppers, creating an inviting atmosphere, and raising needed funds for KDC. Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. is the time when the need is greatest.

"Direct Response Servant". Welcome guests, listen to his or her story and discern how KDC is best able to serve that person's needs. We have morning (9:30 to 11:30) and afternoon (1:00 to 3:30) openings in this rewarding position.

"Presbyter Folders"

Want to spend 2 to 3 hours once a month doing something important?

Most of those interested in the programs and activities of our church get their information on their computers. However there are many households that prefer to have a hard copy arrive in the mail. So each time a Presbyter is printed, some copies need to be folded and have the mailing address of the receiver(s) attached.

A group of folks has been meeting at 8:00 on the morning of the mailing date. In about 2 hours, our task is completed. Come join the team that makes that happen.

Call Ann Johnson at the church office (344-0119) or Phyllis Buskirk (375-2586). We'll add you to our list of folders.

CENTS-ABILITY

Happy are those who give food to the poor. Psalm 146:5-8

Everyone feels hungry on a daily basis. Most people are able to satisfy this craving and need. People who suffer chronic hunger don't have the option of eating when they are hungry. They have a primary need—how to feed themselves and their children today and tomorrow.

Food insecurity is the formal term for this condition. People living with food insecurity lack a stable, reliable means of getting the meals they need. We can help, because God has given us the heart and hands, along with the instructions, to provide food and other resources to the poor.

The children understand that they can provide relief for those who are hungry, through different programs here at First Presbyterian Church.

1. Bring canned and boxed food for our Loaves & Fishes barrels.
2. Come and serve a meal, or provide fruit or a dessert for the 100 men, women, and children who eat with us at Celebrate the Vision on Wednesday evenings.
3. Serve dinner at Ministry with Community on the first Sunday of the month.
4. Make a donation and/or walk in our annual CROP Hunger Walk.
5. Collect coins in the Cents-Ability cups for our STOP HUNGER NOW and future programs that address hunger.

Cents-Ability is a program we are facilitating, where the children and members of the congregation are asked to contribute a few cents to the Cents-Ability cups every time they sit down to eat. We will use these funds to help combat hunger through different agencies and programs.

For the month of May, we will be collecting money for STOP HUNGER NOW, an organization that gets food and life-saving aid to the world's most vulnerable people, and works to end global hunger in our lifetime. Established in 1998, it has provided more than 225 million meals in 73 countries. Based in Raleigh, North Carolina, STOP HUNGER NOW operates throughout the U.S. and through affiliates in developing countries.

On June 5 (Children and Youth Sunday), we will use the money we have collected to purchase and then package food packets for the world. We are hoping you will encourage us with your contributions and your assistance in packaging these meals.

Matthew 25:31-46

I was hungry and you fed me.

Micah 6:6-8.

Do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God.

Outreach and Community Service

"STOP HUNGER NOW"

"30 days or 30 Dollars!"

Meal-Packaging Event: June 5

The Congregational Life Committee is collaborating with Christian Education and the Youth Group to organize a meal-packaging event at FPC on June 5, following the All-Church Picnic. We are working with "Stop Hunger Now" to facilitate this event.

"Stop Hunger Now" is an organization driven by the vision of a world without hunger. Their mission is to end hunger in our lifetime by providing food and life-changing aid to the world's most vulnerable, and creating a global commitment to mobilize the necessary resources.

Since their founding in 1998, this organization has provided over 225 million meals in 73 countries. Based in Raleigh, N.C., "Stop Hunger Now" operates meal-packaging programs in 20 cities in the U.S. and in South Africa, Malaysia, India, Italy, Peru, and the Philippines. They distribute meals through feeding programs operated by partner organizations in developing countries that promote education, encourage children to attend school, improve students' health and nutrition, address gender inequalities, stimulate economic growth, fight child labor, and are crucial in addressing global issues.

In just under two hours, a group of 40 to 50 volunteers can package 10,152 nutrient-rich meals. Our goal on June 5 is to package at least that many meals—the minimum number requested by "Stop Hunger Now". In order to do this, we need to raise funds to pay for these meals at a cost of $0.29 per meal. We are hoping to raise $3,500.00 and to have at least 50 volunteers participate in this event.

Volunteers of all ages are encouraged to come and join in the fun.

We are also asking you to prayerfully consider a donation.

~ A dollar a day for 30 days in May will buy over 100 meals!

~ If you give up one meal at a restaurant this month and contribute the money to stop hunger – you can buy more than 100 meals!

For more information or to make a contribution, please visit our "Stop Hunger Now" table in the Gathering Place during the month of May. You can also contact Bev Murray at (269) 352-0079 or bhmurray@charter.net.

TIPS FROM GREEN PETE

A PLUS FROM THE EARTH CARE FAIR: "REPURPOSING" AT SPRING CLEANING TIME

If you were among the many adults and kids who thronged the "Earth Care Fair" in the Gathering Place on Earth Sunday, April 17, you saw exhibits that showed ways to direct your still-useful castoffs to folks who can make good use of them and might not otherwise be able to afford them. Here is more information about our sample organizations

Habitat for Humanity REStore: 7612 S. Westnedge accepts donations of new and gently used items for household furnishing, repair and rehabilitation. Call the hotline at (269) 381-5523 for information or to arrange a pickup. (www/habitatkalamazoo.org)

Kalamazoo Deacons Conference, 1010 N. Westnedge, has a long tradition of meeting the spiritual and physical needs of the poor in our community. Furniture, appliances, dishes, bedding (either repurposed in good condition or new) are welcomed. Call (269) 344-7333 for pickup of large items.

Partners in Transitions at St. Luke's Episcopal Church helps formerly homeless families with children by providing basic household furnishings and household items, either in good condition or new: twin or double bed sheets, bath and hand towels, dressers, kitchen tables and chairs. Call Executive Director Bob Small at (269) 345-8553 with any questions or to arrange pickup.

This is only a partial list of appropriate service organizations in our community where your repurposed goods can continue their useful life.

Remember—
REPURPOSING IS RECYCLING PLUS!

EDISON SCHOOL OUTREACH PROJECT

“WHY DO I TUTOR?”

Below are comments from some of our volunteers during the last school year:

- ◇ Children who are reading below grade level, on grade level, or above grade level need one-on-one attention, someone to listen to them and discuss what they are reading.
- ◇ Children need adults, in addition to their parents, who listen to, support, and encourage them.
- ◇ The strong appreciation by students for any “one-on-one” adult interest in their effort to improve academic skills, and the personal reward, for me, to share time with many wonderful young people.
- ◇ I have been (tutoring) in the fifth grade for several years, and find reading with a variety of students to be fun, educational, and satisfying... This is a place that is making a difference in the lives of these children. I feel it is an honor to be a part of that effort.
- ◇ I love little children and so much enjoy playing blocks, games, puzzles, and in the House Center. At the House Center, I am the Granny!...
- ◇ I feel like I am making a difference in their day...and hopefully for the long term.

On a recent visit to Mr. Travis' Peeps (pre-school), Richard Aldrich brought in the monthly cupcake treats. Mr. Travis, about 6'4" said one word in a very audible, but not shouted manner: “Children, FREEZE!” About 18 beautiful young children stopped whatever they were doing – looked at him with anticipation. “Children – Mr. Aldrich brought us some treats; what do we say?” An enthusiastic, unison “THANK YOU” burst forth from their smiling faces, and one girl literally ran up and hugged Richard's leg (that's about how tall she was). Now, doesn't that make your day? It certainly did it for us.

SUPPLIES NEEDED:

HYGIENE: students with sniffles – NEED continuing supplies of facial tissues, hand sanitizers, and non-chlorine sanitizing wipes.

SNACKS: such as cheese & crackers, graham crackers, animal crackers. You can obtain a lot of these in bulk at the big wholesale stores in town.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES: Ticonderoga pencils, big erasers, notebook paper.

You may bring these to church, deposit them in the “Edison Project” bin on the second floor, or write a check designated for the Edison Project, and we will purchase the needed supplies.

What is the Pentecost Offering?

Each year on Pentecost Sunday we celebrate the arrival of the Holy Spirit as a bringer of new life.

The Pentecost Offering is one of the four Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), and is about helping young people begin life with a strong start—a solid foundation of faith formed in the first third of life, from childhood through young adulthood.

Gifts to the Pentecost Offering unite young people in Christ and inspire them to share their faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world.

Presbyterian congregations are finding new ways to minister to children at risk in their own communities. General Assembly programs are advocating for children, and developing youth and young adult leaders

Congregations keep 40% of funds from this offering to support the local youth-focused programs.

60% of funds will be remitted to the Presbyterian Mission Agency to support the Young Adult Volunteers program, Ministries with Youth program, in addition to education and advocacy for children at risk through the “Educate a Child: Transform the World” national initiative.

The Day of Pentecost is the Sunday most commonly chosen to collect the Offering. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of this request.

PASTORAL CARE AND HOSPITAL VISITATION

An important part of our ministry at First Presbyterian Church is to provide pastoral care, including hospital visits. When a church member is admitted, hospitals are no longer permitted to notify the home church. We depend on members to call the church when a family member is hospitalized or needs a pastoral call.

Pastoral care is provided by the pastors, retired ministers from the congregation, and also by the Health Ministry Coordinator. Every attempt is made to visit hospital patients on a regular basis, even on weekends.

Those doing hospital calling would appreciate knowing when any member needs a visit or special attention. Please call the church office, 344-0119.

If your call is an emergency and you are unable to reach a person at this number, please call one of these staff members:

MAY IS NATIONAL FOOD ALLERGY MONTH

How Many People Have Food Allergies?

- Researchers estimate that up to 15 million Americans have food allergies.
- This potentially deadly disease affects 1 in every 13 children (under 18 years of age) in the U.S. That's roughly two in every classroom.
- The economic cost of children's food allergies is nearly $25 billion per year.

Food Allergies on the Rise

- According to a study released in 2013 by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, food allergies among children increased approximately 50% between 1997 and 2011.
- The number of people who have a food allergy is growing, but there is no clear answer as to why.

Food Allergy Reactions & Anaphylaxis

- Every 3 minutes, a food allergy reaction sends someone to the emergency room. That is more than 200,000 emergency room visits per year!
- A reaction to food can range from a mild response (such as an itchy mouth) to anaphylaxis, a severe and potentially deadly reaction.
- Food allergy is the leading cause of anaphylaxis outside the hospital setting.
- Teenagers and young adults with food allergies are at the highest risk of fatal food-induced anaphylaxis.
- Individuals with food allergies who also have asthma may be at increased risk for severe or fatal food allergy reactions.
- Symptoms of anaphylaxis may recur after initially subsiding, and experts recommend an observation period of about four hours to assure that the reaction has been resolved.
- It is possible to have anaphylaxis without any skin symptoms, such as rash or hives.

Foods Commonly Associated with Food Allergies

- Eight foods account for 90 percent of all reactions: milk, eggs, peanuts, tree nuts, soy, wheat, fish, and shellfish. Even trace amounts of a food allergen can cause a reaction.
